

THE simplest possible television receiver in a table type cabinet with only two front controls, "picture brightness" and "sound volume." It incorporates the new superhet chassis and gives a brilliant black and white picture  $8\frac{3}{8}$ " wide  $\times$   $6\frac{5}{8}$ " deep.

The lowest price "His Master's Voice" television receiver for 1940, it gives the biggest picture possible in a cabinet of such compact design.

MODEL 1800.      RELEASE DATE 29th AUG.      PRICE 31 GNS.
Special Television Table  $2\frac{1}{2}$  Gns.

*Dimensions: Height  $21\frac{1}{2}$ ", width  $15\frac{1}{2}$ ", depth of cabinet 18".
There is a  $2\frac{1}{2}$ " projection at the back of the cabinet.
Picture size: Height  $6\frac{5}{8}$ ", width  $8\frac{3}{8}$ ".*

Courtesy of Michael Bennett-Levy